

The Mansion 2009

REGIONAL ART SHOW

Exhibition

Presented by the Upper Catskill Community Council of the Arts, The Mansion is a juried exhibition from the region's most compelling artists. Artwork is displayed in the unique galleries of historic Wilber Mansion in Oneonta, NY. The show opens with a reception, hosted in part by Brewery Ommegang of Cooperstown on Friday June 26, from 6-9 pm. Awards will be presented at 7:30 pm.

Eligibility

The Mansion is open to all artists over 18 years of age living within a 100 mile radius of Oneonta, NY. Two and three-dimensional work in one of five media categories is acceptable. Artwork must be original and created within the past 3 years; and may not exceed 36"x36"x36". Commercial duplications of prints or drawing will not be accepted. Two-dimensional work must be appropriately mounted and ready for gallery hanging.

Jurying

An anonymous panel of arts professionals will determine artwork that will be included in the exhibition. Selected pieces will then be privately juried for awards prior to the opening reception. This year's guest juror is John Brunelli, Gallery Curator at Anthony Brunelli Fine Arts, a private gallery in downtown Binghamton, NY.

Drop-off / Entry

Entries must be delivered to Wilber Mansion with proper label(s) affixed to the back, upper left corner of the artwork. The entry fee is due at the time of delivery and is not refundable. No more than two entries may be submitted by an artist.
